++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cold, wet, and windy for most. Snow possible for some.

Today:
Windy and cold to start with some rain, heaviest in southern areas. Further rain through the day, increasingly falling as snow in southern and western areas. Elsewhere, sleet and hill snow remain possible, but drier in the north later. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Tonight:
The wintry conditions ease into the evening, leaving a dry night with clear spells, giving rise to a widespread frost, and icy patches. Winds also ease overnight. Minimum temperature -4 deg C (25 deg F).

Sunday:
A bright and frosty start, with patchy ice. Remaining dry throughout, with cloud increasing through the day, and intermittent sunny spells. Winds strengthening later in the day. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Cloud and patchy sleet or snow giving way to brighter skies on Monday. Cloudy and windy with rain or snow on Tuesday. Less windy Wednesday but further rain or sleet.
